Don't Memorise

Encouraging learning through better understanding!

Visit Website

Vocabulary

Espouse
(Verb)

To embrace; to support a cause.

The students espoused David's teaching methods!

Don't Memorise

forthcoming

(Adjective)

Coming forward; honest.

Daniel was forthcoming about the prank he pulled on his friend.

forthright
(Adjective)

Very direct and straightforward behavior.

Haha... you look ridiculous in that get-up...

Charlie was forthright about Disha's dress.

Herald
(noun)

messenger

Newspapers are a herald to the citizens about the on-goings of the world.

Presage
(noun)

Foresight; to indicate the future.

Amir marveled at how the computer did all his tasks in very little time – an ominous presage to his job being eliminated.

Other courses by Don't Memorise

Biology

Weighted averages, Mixtures and Alligations

Visit Course

http://bit.ly/DM_Biology

Scan here

Click here 👆 or Type 📱

Visit Course

http://bit.ly/DM_WMA

Scan here

Click here 👆 or Type 📱

Heresy (noun)

Beliefs which are totally opposite to what most of the people believe.

Ben's heresy astounds his religious friends.

Ideologue
(noun)

Someone who strongly believes and supports something without ever doubting it.

Jerry gets agitated about opposing ideologues as he strongly believes in his own.

Idiosyncrasy

(noun)

Some kind of identifiable and consistent, peculiar behaviour.

Amir's co-workers could identify his obvious idiosyncrasy of being pessimistic all the time.

Don't Memorise

Heuristic
(Adjective)

A trial and error process.

Dev had an idea to reduce the city's traffic but Gaurav was skeptical about the heuristic process involved..

Iteration

(noun)

An act of repetition, often with adaptations.

Bianca and Ben did not stop iterating until they had success with the wind mill.